

Assumptions:

1. Partial participation is used for instructor entity regarding the teaches relationship because not all instructors need to teach a section; an instructor could be in the university just to do research.
2. An instructor belongs to many departments; it's possible that a joint, secondary or courtesy appointment exists.
3. Students are limited to only two majors and minors.